

MEMBERSHIP AGREEMENT

Last revised January 2017

Funky Spaces is an unincorporated membership organisation with a web platform for work, event and community spaces. Membership is granted to those who satisfy the following criteria:

1. Affordable rents and flexible terms
2. Welcoming and good at mixing up different kinds of work/people
3. Supportive, collaborative, positive & kind about different needs
4. Comfortable, quirky and interesting physical spaces
5. To serve a purpose for the common good, not just make money
6. Share best practice and learning

Members must also commit to supporting each other by:

1. Sending a representative to at least two members meetings/year
2. Sharing ideas, learning and best practise
3. Cross-referring potential clients according to their needs
4. Hosting a members meeting with light refreshments
5. Monitoring and reporting activity (new members, event etc.) originating from the Funky Space group
6. Promoting Funky Spaces where appropriate

Failure to uphold these commitments may result in membership being withdrawn.

Funky Spaces is administered by modoto ltd, which in return for membership payments (currently £60/year with £30 set up fee in year 1) will provide:

1. Funky Spaces group coordination & development
2. Funky Spaces web maintenance & development
3. Funky Spaces financial records
4. Funky Spaces management and administration

Operational meetings are open to members if they wish to opt in.

This agreement is validated on receipt of payment, and remains in force for the duration of Funky Spaces membership. Membership is renewable annually for a calendar year.

Modoto Ltd is a company limited by guarantee (No. 4891499), owned by Mike Zeidler, founder of Funky Spaces.
